

Sheriff David Rhodes Biography

Sheriff Rhodes was born in Bisbee, AZ and moved to a family ranch in the Cornville area when he was six. Growing up in Yavapai County taught him our valued way of life. He attended elementary school in Cottonwood and went all the way to Yavapai College. His grandfather was Sheriff of Cochise County.

Rhodes joined the Yavapai County Sheriff's Office in 1994. For 30 years, he has served in a variety of roles, including Field Training Officer, Detective, Sex Crimes Detective, Sergeant, Lieutenant, Detention Services Commander, Captain, and Chief Deputy. Details of his education and experience are listed below. He is also the President of The Arizona Sheriffs' Association where he leads Sheriffs from all over our state.

Rhodes has received several appointments by Justices of the Arizona Supreme Court to committees impacting the criminal justice process in the State of Arizona. State legislators, leadership, and Governors have also appointed him to legislative policy committees for his experience and expertise.
