

Doreen Holtje currently serves as the Northern Arizona Regional Field Director for the Republican Party of Arizona. In addition to her role with the 2024 Trump Campaign, she holds prominent leadership positions within the Republican Party, serving as President of the Flagstaff Republican Women, Vice Chair of the Coconino County Republican Committee, and State Committeeman. Doreen is deeply committed to advancing conservative values and tirelessly advocates for the community's interests at both local and state levels.

Beyond her political endeavors, Doreen has a strong commitment to her family. She successfully raised four children as a single mother and dedicated 20 years to home education. Her extensive community service includes serving on several community boards of directors, coaching youth sports, and active participation in her local community church. Doreen finds joy and relaxation in playing the trumpet, a hobby she has cherished for many years.
