

Whitmer For Judge

Experienced. Conservative.

Meet Judicial Candidate Henry Whitmer

Henry Whitmer is a native Arizonan, something he is fiercely proud of and profoundly formed by. Henry was born at Good Samaritan Hospital on 12th Street in Phoenix. Henry attended Arizona State University for honors college and law school, where he met his wife, Shena Whitmer. After returning from the Pacific in WWII, his grandfather attended Arizona State on the G.I. Bill. His father and mother also went to ASU, and his 2-year-old daughter Addison will hopefully follow the family tradition.

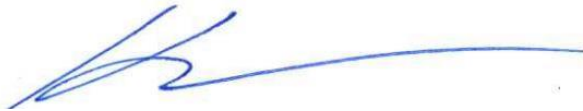

With a legal career spanning fourteen years, Henry Whitmer has dedicated over a decade to practicing law in Yavapai County. His experience extends to all Arizona state and federal courts, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court. As a former homicide prosecutor and defense attorney, he has represented both 'The People' and 'The Person', gaining invaluable experience in city courts, superior courts, federal courts, and even the United States Supreme Court Bar.

Henry Whitmer is a highly active member of the legal community, serving in various capacities. He is a member of Arizona Attorneys for Criminal Justice and the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He also holds leadership positions, serving as Vice Chair of Arizona State Bar's Criminal Practice and Procedure Committee, a Federal Criminal Justice Act panelist, and the president of the Northern Arizona Chapter of the Federalist Society. His commitment to conservative values is further demonstrated by his role as one of twelve Arizona advisors to the United States Congressional Commission on Civil Rights and his position as Yavapai County's elected representative to the State Bar of Arizona's Board of Governors.

Henry Whitmer serves as a Justice of the Peace Pro Tem for Yavapai County. A pro tem is a part-time judge who serves on an as-needed basis. He knows what it takes to be a great judge because he already is one. He has been a Republican since the day he could be a Republican. He has worked for multiple conservative campaigns and causes since he turned eighteen. Henry Whitmer is the clear conservative choice and the only Republican candidate running for this position. Help Henry keep Yavapai County conservative this coming election.

Whitmer For Judge

Henry Edward Whitmer Esq.

Candidate for Yavapai County Superior Court Division 5

www.whitmerforjudge.com

whitmerforjudge@gmail.com